

South Central Association of Blood Banks
& Association of Donor Recruitment Professionals
Joint Educational Symposium
Friday, July 18, 2014
9:00AM - 3:30PM

SOUTH CENTRAL
Association of Blood Banks

ADRP and SCABB have joined forces to provide an opportunity for learning together. The symposium is being built with the idea of total collaboration between technical operations and donor recruitment. The power of a successful alliance is the ideal platform for successful blood center operations. The unique audiences of these two associations will provide a base of individuals who can together revolutionize the donor experience.
